While it is a very short course at only about 4,500 yards, it has its own set of challenges. Tight fairways, hazards galore and fast greens. The course boasts of the highest number of grass bunkers unlike any course in the country and a lot of visiting golfers are often at their wits end when playing.

With only one Par 5 hole, it might be seem like a cake-walk for the pros, but play a round here and you will be surprised with how challenging the course can be.
